Welcome

With a blend of traditional elegance and contemporary glamour, Manchester Hall sets the stage for unforgettable Jewish celebrations.

Our experienced team takes pride in working closely with couples to honour customs and traditions from all cultural and religious backgrounds, making sure you and your guests feel cherished. Our venue is the perfect setting for all significant occasions, from joyous Bar/Bat Mitzvahs to traditional Wedding ceremonies, ensuring each is marked with merriment and exceptional service.

With a range of unique suites to choose from for your special day, accommodating up to 300 guests seated, our venue is the perfect backdrop for your celebrations. We understand the importance of cultural rituals and are dedicated to crafting a memorable experience with impeccable attention to detail. We will ensure every aspect of your day runs flawlessly, so you can relax and enjoy every moment. Join us for a grand celebration of love, family and heritage.

We had the most spectacular wedding at Manchester Hall! Our wedding coordinator was incredible, guiding us through the entire journey with such care and attention.

The rooms were so gorgeous with every detail spot on. Our guests couldn't stop talking about how lovely the staff were and how they truly felt looked after the entire day. Huge thanks to the team for making our day so special!

Your Journey

With a devotion to crafting the best experience possible, our venue allows you and your guests to fully immerse yourselves in the religious significance of the ceremony. Whether you're planning to start your pre-wedding celebrations with a joyful Tisch or an intimate Badeken ceremony, each floor features adjoining rooms to accommodate all rituals at the beginning of your special day.

For the main event, picture signing the Ketubah and smashing the glass beneath a beautifully adorned Chuppah in our stunning ballroom. As you exchange vows, the cheers of "Mazal Tov!" will fill the air, and your friends and family will come together to celebrate this unforgettable moment

At sundown, your magical day will unfold. Following your culinary delights, our venue will transform and the evening will unfold into a timeless celebration of love and tradition. Party the night away during your Hora as you are lifted beneath a canopy of stars on our roof terrace surrounded by joyous singing and a circle of dancing loved ones.

Suites

No matter the occasion or guest count of your celebration, we offer a versatile selection of thirteen unique suites. Our two grandest spaces can accommodate guest numbers from 150 seated to 300 for a casual affair.

The Goulburn

With its original features and impressive design dating back to the 1920's, the Goulburn exudes elegance and sophistication. A stunning chandelier situated in the heart of the ceiling and beautiful intricate detailing makes the Goulburn arguably one of the most breathtaking ballrooms in Manchester.

The John Rylands Terrace

Our John Rylands Terrace is a haven like no other within the centre of Manchester. Not only is this our largest suite, but it also offers two external terraces, a private bar and a retractable roof, allowing you to dance amongst the stars with an unparalleled city skyline.
